

~ THE HAY BALE ~
Canon City, Colorado (Fremont County)

Offered at $165,000

Irrigated Hay/Crop Land with Water Rights! ~ (5) Shares Oil Creek Ditch & (2) Shares Hydraulic & Irrigation Ditch ~ 8" Flood Irrigation Pipe (2) Sides ~ No Covenants or HOA ~ City Utilities & Paved Access

4.99 +/- Acres

The Hay Bale would be the perfect fit for the outdoor enthusiast who enjoys working the land. Just under 5 acres, its level terrain and ample water rights, including five (5) shares of the Oil Creek Ditch and two (2) shares of the Hydraulic & Irrigating Ditch, will help make your farming ventures successful. And, it is tractor ready - till, plant, and harvest the crops, vegetables or fruits of your choice. Or, maintain its lush green hay to feed for your livestock - it currently produces 1-2 tons of natural grass hay per acre. Full perimeter fencing, gate and the 8" irrigation pipe (used for flood irrigation & located on the south and west sides) are included. Enjoy the regions' mild winters, 255+ days of sunshine, low humidity and blue skies. Access to the property is via paved city street; however, it is county (not city) land with Agricultural Suburban zoning. You have the option of subdividing the property, maintaining 100% of the land as an operating farm/horse property or you may add a single-family home to the site. Electric, phone, water and sewer taps are available along its paved boundary line. There are no covenants or HOA. If you build, your home would not far from city amenities – employment, shopping, medical care and entertainment; such as the Canon City Whitewater Park (aka "The Riverwalk"), Royal Gorge Bridge & Park, Garden Park Fossil Area, Dinosaur Depot, Museums, Art Galleries, Fine Restaurants, Arkansas River (fly-fishing & rafting) and the Holy Cross Abbey and Winery - are just minutes away! The Hay Bale offers so many possibilities – don't hesitate to check this one out!
